

Criteria for selection

In assessing an Expression of Interest the selection panel will consider the extent to which it clearly sets out the intent of the proposed research project and how it might contribute to the TLRI.

The selection panel will assess the proposed project in terms of its relevance to the aims, principles, and priorities of the TLRI using the following criteria:

1. Strategic relevance

The strategic relevance of the proposed project will be assessed in terms of how it addresses Principle One and Two and the TLRI strategic priorities of consolidating and building knowledge and identifying and addressing gaps in our knowledge.

2. Research relevance

Type I projects: research relevance will be assessed in terms of Principle Three and Four and, in the context of the nature and scope of the proposed project, how the (1) research design and methodology; (2) capability of the project team; and (3) partnership model address the research priorities outlined in the overview document.

Type II projects: research relevance in terms of Principle Four and, in the context of the nature and scope of the proposed project, how the (1) research design and methodology; (2) capability of the project team; and (3) partnership model address the research priorities outlined in the overview document.

3. Practice relevance

Practice relevance will be assessed in terms of consistency of the proposed project with Principle Five and the extent to which it addresses the practice priorities (likely impact on practice and impact on learning) that are appropriate to the nature and scope of the proposed project.
